

DIVA

11 December - 26 April

Australian Museum of Performing Arts (AMPA)
Hamer Hall, Arts Centre Melbourne

DIVA is a groundbreaking exhibition celebrating history's greatest performers.

The exhibition presents more than 250 objects, including 60 spectacular costumes, jewellery, photography, art, and music, drawn from the V&A's Collection, Arts Centre Melbourne's Australian Performing Arts Collection, and loaned treasures from across the world.

DIVA features a dazzling roll call of legends such as Maria Callas, Judy Garland, Joan Crawford, Dame Nellie Melba, Grace Jones, Cher, Prince, Tina Turner, Elton John, Madonna, Adele, Rihanna, Lady Gaga, Whitney Houston, P!nk, Björk, Billie Eilish and more.

The exhibition also showcases Australia's significant contributions to the stage, including Dame Joan Sutherland, Peter Allen, Marcia Hines, Kylie Minogue, Olivia Newton-John, Cate Blanchett, Kate Miller-Heidke, Chrissy Amphlett, Dame Edna Everage, Jessica Mauboy and Amy Taylor (Amyl and the Sniffers).

Australian exclusive, only at AMPA.

Book now

Tickets: $30 adult /
$28 concession / $19 child

Welcome to the Australian Museum of Performing Arts

A new destination for performing arts stories.

Located in Hamer Hall, AMPA's exhibitions celebrate Australia's extraordinary performing arts history and showcase the best from international museums and galleries.

At the heart of AMPA is the Australian Performing Arts Collection. A significant and treasured archive of more than 850,000 objects spanning theatre, music, circus, dance, opera and ballet, it is also the largest specialist collection in the country.

You're invited to step behind the curtain and experience rare pieces from iconic stars like Kylie Minogue, Hugh Jackman, Nick Cave, Olivia Newton-John, and celebrated institutions such as The Australian Ballet and Circus Oz.

These stories shine in dynamic, world-class exhibitions that can only be experienced in Melbourne.

See what's on and plan your visit

Created by the V&A - tearing the world

CREATIVE
VICTORIA

Installation view of DIVA at Australian Museum of Performing Arts, Arts Centre Melbourne.
Photo: Astrid Mulder